

HOUSE & GARDEN

FEBRUARY
2010
£3.70

DECORATOR'S NOTEBOOK

the latest furniture & decorative accessories

THE DEFINITIVE GUIDE TO STYLISH LIVING

ENJOY A PRIVATE VIEW OF 5 UNIQUE HOMES

FEEL-GOOD FACTOR

■ DELICIOUS, ROMANTIC
FOOD TO LIFT
THE SPIRITS

■ PRETTY,
BRITISH-DESIGNED FABRICS

■ A CHATEAU
GARDEN
SPARKLING
UNDER FROST

■ FITTED
CARPETS
MAKE A COMEBACK

1 These 'Tweedmill' wool throws in, from top, cottage pink, autumn check multi and mulberry fishbone, measure 183 x 150cm, and cost £59 each, at John Lewis. 2 The 'Crono' chandelier, 110 x 85cm diameter - comprising a frame of suspended, black, polished-nickel concentric circles mounted with hand-shaped, triangular Murano-glass rods - supports 15-watt, low-energy, E14 light bulbs. The 15-light version costs £16,390, from Mediterraneo. 3 The degree and pattern of ageing of this antique mirror glass can be executed to your specifications. From top, 'Heavily Degraded Mercury' (HM4), costs £340 a square metre, and 'Fossil' (DS5), costs £275 a square metre, to order, from Compton & Schuster. 4 Shown here covered in a cotton/linen mix (80/20), the 'Archetype' sofa (6386/80), 84 x 203 x 84cm, £5,224.13, is available in a large variety of fabrics, at Baker. 5 Inspired by the shape of a silk scarf floating on the wind and the colour of a purple endive, the 'Endive' wool rug by Esti Barnes measures a maximum 300 x 240cm, and costs £3,924, at Top Floor Rugs. 6 These white linen 'Goose', 'Jelly' and 'Pear' napkins, 45cm square, cost £8.50 each, from Thornback & Peel. For suppliers' details, see Stockists page □